Explanation

Paying an invoice

We reimburse the claim to you. Therefore, you will pay the invoice directly. If you claim the invoice(s) we will send a reply within two weeks.

Medical assistance after an accident

If your invoice relates to an accident for which a third party may be liable, please indicate this on the claim form behind the relevant invoice (column 'Accident'). We will then ask you for further information about the accident in order to determine whether we can hold one or multiple third parties liable. This may positively affect your deductible or excess. This has no consequences for your compensation. You will receive what you are entitled to.
